

Documenting Teaneck History: The COVID-19 Coronavirus Pandemic

Teaneck Public Library, along with the Teaneck Historical Society and Age-Friendly Teaneck, are seeking to collect the experiences of residents during the COVID-19 outbreak to document and preserve how the Coronavirus has affected the lives of residents of Teaneck, New Jersey.

We seek your accounts of how the crisis has impacted your family, business, education, and well-being. Types of submissions may include personal reflections, photos, poetry, or recordings. Donations will be preserved and made available for educational and historical purposes.

The submitted materials will be preserved and managed and made available to residents and library users, and for display, educational, and publication purposes according to accepted archival principles and practices.

If you have questions, please contact reference@teaneck.bccls.org or 201-817-9780.

Name: _____

Email / Phone: _____

I am: under 18 over 18 Are you a Teaneck resident? yes no

Description of submission:

Agreements:

I understand and agree that the submitted material may contain sensitive personal information about me, including personal health information, and that this information may be archived and shared as described above. I agree not to include personally identifiable information of other people - this includes their personal health information.

I agree to give Teaneck Public Library permission to share the words and pictures with the public as part of the historical record. No benefit, financial or otherwise, is given or implied for the submitted material.